

Paola Marroquin

Paola joins us from her homeland of Guatemala and has an extensive background in education, having worked in the field for the past 30 years. In addition to being a teacher at all levels from preschool to high school, she has also served as the director of a preschool. During the last few years, she has combined her professional role with her role as a homeschooling mom.

Although she loves to spend time in nature and at the beach, her favorite part of the week is movie and pizza night with her kids, which takes place every Friday without fail.
