

Sheyla

A good word to describe Sheyla, who joins us from eastern Guatemala, would be “multi-faceted.” Now in her senior year in Computer Engineering, she works part-time teaching both Spanish and English. Her many interests run from doing acrylic and oil painting to working with clay and creating designs using the punch needle technique. She has a very creative side which she puts to good use in both her art and her teaching.