

Juan Francisco

A native of Guatemala, the country of the eternal spring, Juan moved to the U.S. as a young adult with just a handful of words in his English vocabulary. For this reason, he knows firsthand what it's like to learn a foreign language from the beginning, an experience that has been extremely valuable in his teaching career.

Juan has taught Spanish at Montessori schools, public elementary schools, and at the local community college. He has worked with students of all ages from preschoolers to senior adults and from all levels from beginning to advanced.

In his free time, Juan can be found making his signature ceviche, listening to merengue, or dancing cumbia.
