

Astrid

A teacher for 10 years and counting, Astrid has taught children from first grade to high school. She has a teaching degree with a specialization in natural sciences.

Astrid is passionate about two things: teaching and soccer. She not only loves to watch soccer, as most Guatemalans do, but also loves to play it. Besides playing soccer, she enjoys painting colorful murals and taking care of her beagles, Enzo and Lana.