

Alma

Alma has worked extensively as a preschool teacher and is absolutely passionate about teaching, always looking for novel activities, games, and art projects to add to her repertoire. She loves all things pink, enjoys playing soccer, and cooks some fabulous Guatemalan dishes. On weekends, she can be found reading motivational books or volunteering with the youth group at her church.