

Katherine Georgina

Katherine Georgina, or Georgie as her friends call her, is a primary school teacher in Guatemala who is currently pursuing her degree in industrial psychology. She is also a graduate of the ASED Montessori training course, where she received her certification as a Montessori guide.

Georgie loves to explore unknown places, play with her adorable French poodle named Kira, experiment in the kitchen with new recipes, and listen to music from pop to classical. You can often find her eating her favorite dishes, Chinese rice and raspberry cheesecake, while listening to a podcast.
