

Verónica Montañés Castro

Originally from Zaragoza, Spain, Veronica has degrees in both pre-school and elementary education. She is currently working on her master's degree in Spanish Language Instruction. During her breaks between studies, her love of traveling has taken her to such fascinating countries as Costa Rica and Türkiye (where she went riding in a hot air balloon.) In addition to traveling, she enjoys cooking Mediterranean dishes, baking delicious treats such as “roscones”, and doing yoga.